

Sunday Suit

*Giving up the keys to my castle and I'm gone
Time for me to move on
I've got a brand new life
Going down to the chapel in my Sunday suit
Shining up my shoes
Make my baby my wife*

*Gonna have days that make you wanna stop believing
But soon enough you'll understand
My love lasts through the seasons
They say you can't chose who you love
You've got to leave it up to life
But I think we all deserve a little more credit
Cuz this time I chose right*
